Champion and Butchart Finish All Even With the Kerrigans

Brothers Enjoy Three-Hole Advantage With Only Ten More to Play in Afternoon Round, When Title Holder Squares Match by Great Exhibition

By Ray McCarthy

A large gallery that attended the golf match between the Kerrigan brothers, Tommy and George, and Cuthbert Butchart and Gene Sarazen, national open champion, at the Westchester-Biltmore Country Club yesterday now knows why Sarazen is a champion. With the struggle going hard against his side in the afternoon little Gene heroically stepped into the breach and repelled the rush of the Kerrigans with a brilliant display of golf. The match finally ended all even.

The morning match, a fine up-and-down struggle, had ended all even. Tommy Kerrigan had kept his side in the running on this round with a fine 70. Young George had helped him on one hole only, and at noon Tommy had to give his younger brother a mild call.

"Inasmuch as you have your golf clubs with you," said Tommy to George, "you might as well make use of them and give me some help occasionally." George remained silent, but started with a rush in the afternoon, winning the first two holes with two birdies.

Tommy wins third hole. Tommy wasn't going to allow George to do all of the work, so he stepped out on the third hole with a fine 4. The Kerrigan clan maintained that lead as far as the ninth hole. With a lead of 3 up and only ten holes left to play it looked as if the champion would be on a losing team. But at that particular point Sarazen, like a true champion, set forth in earnest to overtake his opponents.

He rammed his second shot close to the pin at the tenth hole for a fine 3 and a win, but Tommy Kerrigan got that hole back immediately after by running down a long putt on the tenth green. Sarazen is a fighter, though, and he took up the chase again at the eleventh hole.

He smashed a spoon shot close enough to the pin on that hole to get his 2 and the hole. Tommy Kerrigan was close to the flag on his tee shot also, but missed his putt. Sarazen's partner helped him on the twelfth hole, where the Kerrigans had 4. That left Sarazen as a stepping stone to the champion, for he kept right with the brothers during the rest of the round.

Match Squared at Fifteenth. He and his partner won the fifteenth hole, which squared matters, and although both Tommy and George had 24 at the sixteenth, Gene was right there to halve the hole with them. Tommy made a fine bid for victory on the seventeenth hole, when he slipped a long brassie right to the green. Sarazen failed to reach the green on his second, but he recovered with a wonderful niblick shot that left him almost dead to the pin for a birdie 4 and a half with the victory star.

Each of the Kerrigans had a 4 at the home hole, but here again Sarazen was right on hand to get a half. Furthermore, the midget nearly won the contest on this home green, where his putt of six feet rimmed the cup.
